

FLIGHT INSTRUCTOR RECEIVES AWARD FOR SAFETY

25th September 2012

James Gillott, a fixed wing flight instructor at Horizon was presented with an award by Hareb Thani Al Dhaheri, the academy's CEO. James received the award after demonstrating excellence in safety practices during an emergency landing.

Training the next generation of pilots is a crucial task, that requires the highest standards of safety and the Academy is quick to recognize anyone that shows commitment to this cause. The innovative thinking and passion for flight displayed by the instructional team has made Horizon a regional leader in flight training.

