

MOVEMBER AWAERNESS: TO CHANGE THE FACE OF MEN'S HEALTH

November 2013

Movember awareness happens annually involving the growing of moustaches during the month of November to raise awareness of men's health issues, such as prostate cancer and other male cancers and increase early cancer detection and check-ups. Special thanks to our flight instructors who got involved in this global issue; you are the true champions of this movement.

