

FLYING PARADE AT AL AIN AEROBATIC SHOW

2nd December 2013

Horizon helicopters took to the sky on the 42nd UAE national day for a fly-past parade at the Al Ain Aerobatic Show.

This is the world's only aerobatic festival that combines military and civil aircraft, stunt displays and competitions, cultural and family activities.

Some of the world's top aerobatic pilots compete in three disciplines of air racing at Al Ain International Airport.

The show was held from 30th November to 2nd December to coincide with the UAE National day celebrations and to commemorate this event Horizon's performance featured a lineup of helicopters each labeled with a name of one of the emirates.

