

The International Defence Exhibition and Conference (IDEX)

21st Feb 2019

The International Defence Exhibition and Conference (IDEX) opened its doors this year again in Abu Dhabi between 17th – 21st Feb 2019. Among the local companies in attendance was EDIC Horizon, a subsidiary of Emirates Defense Industries Company (EDIC). EDIC, the strategic partner of IDEX 2019, was also participating by announcing the launch of new training services using two Bell 429 engines.

Hareb Thani Al Dhaheeri, CEO, EDIC Horizon, said, “The addition of two new Bell 429s is a testament to EDIC Horizon’s commitment to consistently improving its portfolio in line with the needs and expectations of our clients. I am glad to see EDIC Horizon taking advantage of being the first player in the Middle East to offer ME training. It is our mission to provide exceptional training to aspiring pilots by delivering value-added, innovative and world-class training solutions.”
